

Christian Counseling Insights

By Dr. John Simms, PhD

1). What's your opinion on Christian Counseling and could you provide insights?

Answer: Some of it's good, but a lot of it isn't. In fact, Christian Counseling and Therapy could make matters worse for some individuals not to mention it could very harmful and even deadly depending on the situation. And to put it bluntly, many Christian Counselors and Therapists including those who are licensed secular counselors and therapists who use the Christian label for marketing purposes aren't Christian and bible educated. And as a result, they don't help people.

2). What are your main criticisms with Christian Counseling and Therapy?

Answer: Besides religious and biblical ignorance, I would say all the counselors, therapists, advisors, pastors, etc who utilize the wrong approaches to help people not to mention the close-mindedness and lack of realism and practicality among other things.

3). Who uses Christian Counseling?

Answer: Churchgoing Christians, cultural and non-religious Christians, pastors, seminary students, skeptics, nonbelievers, etc.

4). Why do people use Christian Counseling?

Answer: For a number of reasons such as, but not limited to the following down below:

- A). They couldn't afford regular counseling or therapy.
- B). They want to use a counselor or therapist who can relate to them on a personal level.
- C). They want to utilize a counselor, therapist or spiritual advisor who deals with Christianity and its related matters.
- D). People use Christian Counseling for a number of issues such as doubting one's faith, personal spirituality, sexual, marital, dating, financial, health, death and grieving, substance abuse and recovery, etc.

Go To The Next Page

5). Do you offer Christian Counseling?

Answer: Yes as well as other types of counseling, various psychotherapies, some physical health services and alternative medicines, life coaching, personal development, mentorship, etc.

In regards to Christian Counseling, I'm Christian and bible educated and I tend to be open-minded, realistic, practical and I embrace science and objectivity to say the least.

As for my services and affordability, I respect people's privacy and work with their financial situations. In fact, I have a health insurance alternative I created called "Simms Care" that benefits many people. And depending on the person and/or situation, Simms Care may be better than regular health insurance coverage, cost sharing or discount plans and fee for service arrangements with other providers.

Important Note:

My Christian Counseling Exposed "What You Need To Know Before You Utilize It" report is available now to purchase at <https://payhip.com/b/XGmNR>

About John Simms

Dr. John Simms, PhD is a non-denominational ordained minister, spiritual advisor, counselor, psychotherapist, master life strategist, holistic medicine practitioner, fitness therapist, health educator, etc.

For more information about me (John Simms) and my products, services, programs, resources, opportunities, free tip sheets, videos and audio recordings that could benefit you in so many different ways, please go to www.johnsimms.org

You have permission to use this Christian Counseling Insights document as long as the author's name and his url references are included.

Copyright © 2022 John Simms All Rights Reserved